Sara's Plan

Little Fox

“That T. rex is big,” Sara said.
“But I have a plan.”
“What is it?” Rex asked. Sara whispered to her friends.

“Roar!” The T. rex stomped.
Lizards and squirrels ran.

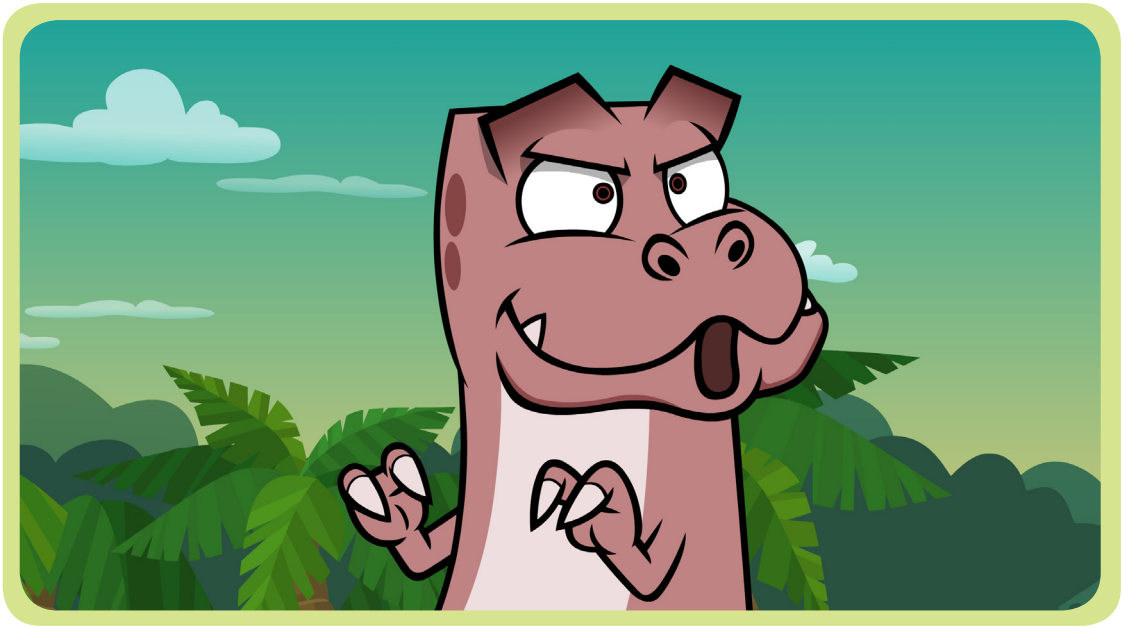

Sara blocked the T. rex. The T. rex laughed.

“You’re small.

You can’t stop me!”

Sara shrugged. “Maybe not.
But my big friend can!”

The T. rex looked around.
“Where is your friend?”

Suddenly trees shook. “Roar! Roar!” Wham! Slam! Bam!

Sara smiled.
“That’s my friend,” she said.
“He’s much bigger than you are!”

The T. rex gulped.

He ran away.

Sara giggled.

The trees stopped shaking.
It was quiet now.
Tor peeked out from the branches.

Sid and Rex ran over.
“We scared the big T. rex!” Sid said. His tail smacked the ground. Wham!

Sara laughed.
“We don’t need to be big. We just need to be clever!”
