Sara went for a walk.

“Mommy!” someone cried.

“Where are you?”

“Uh-oh,” Sara thought. “That sounds like a young dinosaur.”

Sara found the small dinosaur.
He looked scared.

“What’s your name?” Sara asked. The dinosaur sniffed. “I’m Sam. I want my mommy.”

“I’ll help you find her,” Sara said.

Sam smiled.

Sara and Sam walked.

Sam threw small rocks. One rock hit a branch.

Tweet! A bird flew away.

“Don’t throw rocks, Sam,” Sara said. “You might hurt someone.”

Sam threw another rock.

Squeak! A rodent ran away.

“Sam, please stop,” Sara said.

Sam threw a rock into a pond.
Splash! Fish swam away.

“Stop that, Sam,” Sara said.
“It’s not—ouch!”

Sara rubbed her head.

“You threw a rock at me!”
