Bird and Kip 40

Wide-Awake Kip

It was late at night.
Kip was wide-awake.

Kip looked at his books.
“I have so many books,” said Kip.
“I’ll stay up and read all night.”

Kip made some popcorn.
He took a book off the shelf.
He sat down in his cozy chair.

“I have everything I need,” said Kip.

“I have a good book and some popcorn.
I just wish Bird was here.”

Kip peeked out his hole.
He looked down at Bird.

“She’s sleeping,” said Kip.
“I shouldn’t wake her up.”

Kip went back to his cozy chair.
He ate some popcorn.
He opened his book.

Kip started to read.
It was a very scary book.
It was about a spooky ghost.

“Ah!” cried Kip.
Popcorn went everywhere.

And Bird woke up!
