Kip felt awful.
He left the pizza crust on his branch.
He went into his hole.

“Bird doesn’t want a pizza crust,” he thought.
“She wants noodle soup, blankets, and tea.”

Kip made noodle soup and tea.
He found some blankets.
“I’ll bring these things to Bird,” he said.

“Hi, Bird,” said Kip.

“Ah-choo!” said Bird.

“I brought you some things,” said Kip.

Kip gave the soup and the tea to Bird.
Kip put the blankets over Bird's feet.

“Thanks, Kip,” said Bird.
Then Bird noticed the pizza crust.
“Oh!” said Bird.
“Is that pizza crust for me too?”

Kip was surprised.
“Um, yes,” said Kip. “It is for you.”
“Pizza crust is my favorite,” said Bird.
“You know just what I like, Kip!”

“Mmm,” said Bird. “I’m feeling better already!”
Kip smiled.
He was feeling better too.
